Contraction.

Attorney General Hoar has written a letter to Mr. Spaulding, of New York, says the Richmond Dispatch, in which he comes out for a persistent contraction of the amount of currency as a means of bringing about specie payments. It is astonishing how a favorite fallacy maintains its hold upon the average mind. Contraction was once almost universally supposed to be a certain means of producing the result which Mr. Hoar desires to produce; but surely experience has shown that the remedy is worse than the disease. No doubt the retirement of half the volume of greenbacks would enable the Government to redeem the other half in specie; but the process of retirement would break half the business men in the country. It is desirable to rid the country of all thieves, house-breakers, and robbers, and the officers of justice could soon bring about this desirable state of things by shooting down in his tracks every suspected man; but who would recommend such a measure, however effective it might be? So as to a contraction of the currency. If we admit that the measure would bring about specie payments—as we do not admit, the banks not being in a condition to redeem their notes—we must still pause to consider whether in so doing it would not cause evils ten-fold greater than an irredeemable currency. The banks can get specie only by buying it; and to attempt to buy enough of it to enable them to resume at any specified day would be to run up the price of it to such an extent as that it would ruin supply itself. To contract the currency is to make every man pay his note in bank at maturity, and refuse to renew it for him; for as the banks have but little gold and silver on hand, they would have to contract to a wonderful extent to enable them to resume specie payments. The Virginia banks, for instance, have in round numbers, only seventy-three thousand dollars in specie in their vaults, whilst their loans and discounts exceed three millions of dollars, and their outstanding notes of circulation amount to over two millions of dollars. They would have to "contract" with a vengeance to qualify themselves for redeeming their notes in specie. The process would bankrupt the whole State of Virginia, as the banks would be unable to accommodate business men, and would be utterly useless institutions. But let resumption result as a consequence of the paper currency and specie being at par, and no bad effects would follow. And this is the only way in which specie payments can be brought. The difference between the value of coin and that of paper is not very great. It will continue to diminish gradually as the finances of the Government are well managed; and in the course of a few years we may glide into specie payments without knowing anything about how we managed to accomplish it. We are inclined to say with Mr. Maynard, of Tennessee, that "we have now the best currency ever known in the nation," but not, as he does, to call for its redemption in specie. We are doing very well. Let us "let well enough alone."

A building of Hood & Co.'s oil refinery, at Akron, Ohio, was burned last Friday. Loss, $15,000, including a large quantity of refined oil ready for shipment.

THE PUBLIC DEBT.—The next public debt statement, it is said, will show a further reduction of the public debt equal to about $6,000,000, which will make the total reduction, since the 1st of March last, over $70,000,000.

The Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

November 22nd, 1869.

A. H. Galloway, (col.) presented a petition from the citizens of Wilmington irrespective of party urging the repeal of an act establishing a special court for the city of Wilmington which was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Beaman introduced a bill to compel persons to work on the public roads, referred.

Mr. Robins resolutions reducing the per diem of members to $4 per day and mileage to 10 cents came up.

Mr. Cook moved to strike out $4 and insert $1.50.

Mr. Bellamy moved to insert 50 cents.

Mr. Brogden was in favor of a fair consideration, and thought these propositions were made in ridicule. The subject ought to be treated with more dignity. Without coming to a conclusion the matter was postponed, which simply means that the Senate refused to reduce the pay of members from $8 to $4 per day.

Bill authorizing the State Treasurer to pay the officers and members of the General Assembly per diem and mileage came up.

A. H. Galloway, colored, offered a substitute to legalize the payments already made, and to fix the per diem and mileage at the same rates as has been allowed at the two preceding sessions of the General Assembly ($7.) Yeas 20, nays 20.

The following bill introduced by Mr. Graham several days ago, came up to wit:

A bill to be entitled "An Act to secure the return to the Public Treasurer, the bonds issued to the Chatham Railroad Company, which have been declared illegal by the Supreme Court."

Sec. 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That the Public Treasurer is hereby authorized, upon the return of any bonds issued by the State to the Chatham Railroad Company, under the Act passed at the special session of 1868, and of the Act to re-enact and confirm the said Act, passed at the session of 1868-69, to deliver to the person surrendering said bonds, the same amount in bonds of the Chatham Railroad Company, received by the State in exchange for the above mentioned bonds.

Sec. 2. That the Public Treasurer is authorized and directed to assign the mortgage made by the said Chatham Railroad Company, to secure the payment of the bonds so received in exchange for bonds issued under the benefit of all parties who may desire to avail themselves of the benefit of this Act.

Sec. 3. That this Act shall be in force from and after its ratification. Mr. Martindale moved its reference to the Committee on Internal Improvements, after some discussion the reference was made.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Monday, Nov. 22nd.

The resolution of Mr. Seymour, in regard to maintaining the State's credit, pledging the State to pay her public debt, the question being on the amendment of Mr. Malone, to insert "legally incurred and honestly disposed of, as to the bonded debt."

Mr. French asked an explanation of the amendment, said the inference was that part had been illegally disposed of.

Mr. Malone said that of the State avoid pledging the creating indebtedness to every one it appears regular. Acts of men control of $12,000,000, may be regular, yet the bonds may be disposed of to parties who have full notice of the fraud. If an agent transcends his authority, the principal is not liable. If a man, passing through the country, offers a horse worth $200 for $25, it is evidence of something wrong—that the horse was probably not the property of the seller. So, if a man proposes to sell $6,000,000 of North Carolina bonds for 35 to 39 cents on the dollar, it is almost positive evidence of bad faith.

Col. Johnston very properly refused to put his bonds on the market; but others have placed millions of bonds on the market, yet strange to say, very little of the roads have been built and the contractors complain of having no money. Why is this? Shall we see this ruinous sacrifice of the State? Shall we stand by and allow this huge speculation, and endorsing the same? It is monstrous to contemplate! If this be the policy, we are ruined! ruined!

Mr. Sinclair opposed the amendment; it would intimate that the Legislature had made dishonest appropriations and prejudice matters on this subject to go before Committees.

Mr. Seymour hoped the amendment would be withdrawn and the vote taken on the main question.

Mr. Malone said this amendment involved the question whether the people should be protected from the infamous swindles of the "Ring."

There was no party movement in it; it was merely a measure to protect the State, and all men who wished the State's appropriations to Railroads honestly and judiciously spent, could support it regardless of party.

THE PUBLIC DEBT.—The next public debt statement, it is said, will show a further reduction of the public debt equal to about $6,000,000, which will make the total reduction, since the 1st of March last, over $70,000,000.

West and Harris, of Wake, opposed the amendment.

Mr. French thought if there were grounds of suspicion that bonds had been dishonestly disposed of, it was the duty of the House to examine into the matter, and not put this amendment in this resolution, which was intended to prop the credit of the State.

Mr. Argo thought the proceedings on the matter premature, and moved to postpone for one month, that Committees might have time to report on matters connected with it.

On his motion the yeas and nays were ordered and resulted as follows: Yeas 54, nays 44.

A FAMILY BURNED NEAR HUNTINGTON, PA.

Huntington, Pa., November 18.—A most horrible slaughter was committed last night in the village of Pleasant Grove, in this township, and but a short distance from this place. Between the hours of 6 and 7 o'clock the dwelling of Mr. John Perghals was entered by two fiends in human shape, and while the family, consisting of Mr. Perghals, his wife, and a boy about twelve years of age named Gardner, were eating their supper, they shot Perghals through the head, killing him instantly. The boy Gardner was dispatched in the same way, and then they split the wife's head open with an axe.

The first intimation of the awful slaughter was the discovery of the house on fire. On repairing to the scene the appalling spectacle met the gaze of the few neighbors who entered. There lay the mangled dead bodies of the victims covered with blood, the walls besmeared from floor to ceiling, and the brains of the victims oozing from their wounds. The murderers, after perpetrating the horrible crime, covered the dead bodies with bedclothes, and then set fire to the house to cover up the deed.

The excitement attending the discovery was most intense, and the news spread like wildfire throughout the whole community. Suspicion at once rested on two men who had been seen loitering about the neighborhood for some time past. It was learned that they took the night train from this place for the West. Dispatches were at once sent to the station agents and police all along the Pennsylvania road, and when the train arrived at Altoona the suspected assassins were arrested and brought back to this place this morning. Their names are Baderberg and Bohner. On their persons was found $250 of the plunder which prompted the terrible massacre. Bohner has made a partial confession of the crime.

It was generally understood that Mr. Perghals was possessed of considerable money. He was an industrious and estimable citizen, and it is with difficulty that the people are restrained from lynching the worse than murderers.

THE WILL OF THE LATE GEORGE PEABODY.—The Boston Post referring to the late George Peabody remarks:

During his lifetime Mr. Peabody executed two wills. One was drawn up some years ago by Mr. Raul, a lawyer of this city, since deceased, but after its execution Mr. Peabody added so many clauses to his former will that it became necessary to draw up a new instrument. This was done at his last visit to this country. It is, of course, not yet definite known what are the precise nature and mode of its bequests. A prominent gentleman of Salem, and an intimate personal friend of the family, had a conversation with Mr. Peabody on this subject just before the latter's final departure from America, in which occurred the following colloquy:

"Well, Mr. Peabody, after so many generous gifts, there will not be a great deal left for your heirs."

"No, sir," was the reply. "Nor do I mean there shall be. I intend to make a still further donation towards the comfort of the London poor, and perhaps add to my previous gifts in other directions. What I leave, however, will be clear of the legacy duties, for it will certainly not exceed one million of dollars."

"It is presumed that the last will and testament of Mr. Peabody will be admitted to probate in the Probate Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and that a copy will therefrom be 'extracted' and filed in the probate office at Salem."

GERMANY—ACCOUNT OF THE SHOCKS.—The scene of the late earthquake in Germany extends from Gross-Gerau, between Darmstadt and Mayence, to Hennef on the north, Gienhausen and Aschaffenburg on the east, Remagen on the west, and Heilbronn and Stuttgart on the south. The strongest shocks were felt at Gross-Gerau and at Stuttgart. At the latter place they were preceded by intense cold, and followed by a sudden increase of temperature, with thick fogs. The earthquake was also felt at Weisbaden, at Frankfurt, and at Saarbrücken, where two powerful shocks, lasting from eight to ten seconds each, occurred last Monday at 3:40 A. M. and 11:55 P. M. A letter from Giessen, dated the 1st instant, says that on the previous evening about 6 o'clock, a swaying motion was perceived from east to west, and the shock was so severe that people rose from their chairs, and the pen fell from the writer's hand. Accounts from Frankfurt state that the earthquake was felt there at 11:45 P. M. on Sunday, and that it lasted ten minutes. Windows rattled, various articles of furniture were moved out of their places, the ceiling of a house fell in, and many of the inhabitants were so alarmed that they came out into the streets. At Gross-Gerau, which was the central point of the earthquake, nearly 200 shocks were felt between the 26th of October and the 2d of November, during nearly the whole of which time incessant rumblings were heard. The first severe shock occurred on the 30th, at 8 o'clock P. M. was followed by others at 11:30 P. M., and at 1 o'clock A. M., 12:15 P. M., and 3:45 P. M. on the 31st. At 5:20 on Sunday evening there was so violent a shock that several chimneys fell, lamps and bottles rolled over, and horses broke out of their stables. All these shocks were preceded by a noise like the roll of distant musketry; they came with a wave-like motion, mostly from west to east.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Revenue to-day a quarter of a million.

Boutwell returns on Monday.

The Treasury has sold $108,000,000 in gold and $10,000,000 currency.

A Cuban letter to the New York Times says, "Of the Americans and foreigners landed by the Peoret, about 40 still remain, the rest have been killed or disabled. Of the Grapshot expedition only two remain."

The Tribune says, "A victory by the insurgents near Remedios disturbance at Cardenas, and continued and conspicuous defections among the Spanish troops, are reported from Cuba. A manifesto for annexation by the Congress at Guimaro is for the first time given to the American public."

The World's Washington special says, "Senator Drake of Missouri is in town and has a bill prepared to strike a blow at the Appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court by removing from its consideration every political question; such as those relating to reconstruction as illustrated in the Yenger and McArdle case. The bill will be offered the first day of the session."

A correspondent to the Times gives account of several battles between the Spaniards under Valmaseda, and the Cubans under Jordan. The Spaniards claim the victory in two of the engagements. At two engagements the Spaniards were defeated. The district is still in possession of the Cubans.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Revenue to-day a quarter of a million.

Boutwell returns on Monday.

The Treasury has sold $108,000,000 in gold and $10,000,000 currency.

A Cuban letter to the New York Times says, "Of the Americans and foreigners landed by the Peoret, about 40 still remain, the rest have been killed or disabled. Of the Grapshot expedition only two remain."

The Tribune says, "A victory by the insurgents near Remedios disturbance at Cardenas, and continued and conspicuous defections among the Spanish troops, are reported from Cuba. A manifesto for annexation by the Congress at Guimaro is for the first time given to the American public."

The World's Washington special says, "Senator Drake of Missouri is in town and has a bill prepared to strike a blow at the Appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court by removing from its consideration every political question; such as those relating to reconstruction as illustrated in the Yenger and McArdle case. The bill will be offered the first day of the session."

A correspondent to the Times gives account of several battles between the Spaniards under Valmaseda, and the Cubans under Jordan. The Spaniards claim the victory in two of the engagements. At two engagements the Spaniards were defeated. The district is still in possession of the Cubans.

evening about 6 o'clock, a swaying motion was perceived from east to west, and the shock was so severe that people rose from their chairs, and the pen fell from the writer's hand. Accounts from Frankfurt state that the earthquake was felt there at 11:45 P. M. on Sunday, and that it lasted ten minutes. Windows rattled, various articles of furniture were moved out of their places, the ceiling of a house fell in, and many of the inhabitants were so alarmed that they came out into the streets. At Gross-Gerau, which was the central point of the earthquake, nearly 200 shocks were felt between the 26th of October and the 2d of November, during nearly the whole of which time incessant rumblings were heard. The first severe shock occurred on the 30th, at 8 o'clock P. M. was followed by others at 11:30 P. M., and at 1 o'clock A. M., 12:15 P. M., and 3:45 P. M. on the 31st. At 5:20 on Sunday evening there was so violent a shock that several chimneys fell, lamps and bottles rolled over, and horses broke out of their stables. All these shocks were preceded by a noise like the roll of distant musketry; they came with a wave-like motion, mostly from west to east.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—According to notice, a meeting was held in the Court House yesterday, to re-organize the Agricultural Society. We regret to say that the attendance was not large, but the few who were present took hold of the work with a spirit and earnestness that presages success. The importance of Agricultural Societies was vigorously portrayed in several speeches, and all feel sure that an interest is aroused that will result in permanent good.

A committee to nominate permanent officers, and to prepare all the preliminaries to a full organization was appointed, which meet on next Thursday evening, to prepare a constitution and by-laws, and also to recommend a name for the Society.

Elsewhere will be seen a full report of the proceedings.

MILTONIAN TABLEAUX.—There will be two performances of this Grand Tableau to-day—a matinee commencing at 3 o'clock for the especial benefit of ladies and children, when the price of admission will be reduced to 25 and 15 cents; and another at night, commencing at 7 1/2 o'clock.

We are unable to give a description of the grandeur of the two previous performances, for the reason that our pen could not do justice to its full merits, but can say, all who have witnessed it have been highly gratified with the entertainment given. We advise those who have not yet seen it to attend this evening, as it will be the last performance in this city.

GENIUS AND POVERTY.—It is one of the mysteries of our lives that genius, that noblest gift of God to man, is nourished by poverty. Its greatest works have been achieved by the sorrowing ones of the world in tears and despair. Not in the brilliant saloon, furnished with every comfort and elegance; not in the library well-fitted, softly carpeted, and looking out upon a smooth, green lawn, or a broad expanse of scenery, not in ease and competence—is genius born and nurtured; more frequently in adversity, and destitution, amidst the harassing cares of a straitened household, in bare and fireless garrets, with the noise of squalid children, in the midst of the turbulence of domestic contentions, and in the deep gloom of uncheered despair, is genius born and reared. This is its birthplace, and in scenes like these, unpropitious, repulsive, wretched, have men labored, studied and trained themselves, until they have at last emanated out of the gloom of that obscurity, the shining lights of their times; become the companions of kings, the guides and teachers of their kind, and exercised an influence upon the thought of the world amounting to a species of intellectual legislation.

GENERAL WADE HAMPTON.—The arrival of this gentleman at Macon to attend the State Fair, is thus appropriately noticed by the Telegraph and Messenger of that city: "We notice the arrival yesterday in our city of this distinguished citizen and soldier, who will deliver the annual address before the Georgia State Agricultural Society."

"No man in all this broad land more deserves the most generous hospitalities and courtesies of this community."

"As a citizen without reproach, and as a soldier whose honor is as stainless as his lineage, we greet him in the name of the people of Georgia. It is most fit that he, so true a representative of the highest type of Southern manhood, should lend the dignity and influence of his presence to an occasion that is, we trust, to mark a new departure toward that genuine peace and unity so essential to the full development of the greatness and glory of our common country."

An immense rink in Chicago was crushed Friday night by the weight of snow on the roof, completely demolishing it. The walls are of brick, and the roof arched with twenty feet pitch.

Tournament at Fort Mill, S. C.

By special invitation it was our privilege to be present at the Tournament, which took place at Fort Mill on the 18th inst. Upon our arrival we were met by Capt. J. W. White, who escorted us to the family Mansion, and were the recipient of the generous hospitality of its inmates. The day opened beautifully and augured a propitious time to those who were to contest for the laurels of the day.

Quite a concourse of the citizens of the vicinity and adjacent points assembled to witness this pleasing entertainment. Among the spectators were to be seen a number of the fair damsels of Charlotte and Rock Hill. As we looked upon the Knights seated upon their gallant steeds, it was difficult to form an estimate as to who would be the victor.

Never did Knights bear themselves with more ease and grace than these. Each one in his turn, elicited the applause of the admiring crowd, and not among the least of the admired was the youthful Knight of "the Confederate Flag" Master Jimmie Miller, a lad of ten years.

And now for the contest. The judges, Col. A. B. Springs, Capt. B. H. Massey, Capt. S. E. White and Mr. Jas. Miller, having taken their seats, the Herald, Mr. J. P. Sossaman, gave the signal for the onset.

The Knights presented themselves in the following order:

R. J. Watson, Knight of Hill, first tilt, 1 ring, 6 seconds; second tilt, 1 ring, 6 seconds; third tilt, 1 ring, 6 seconds.
W. J. Pogue, Knight of Snowden, first tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds; second tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds.
J. D. Kell, Knight of the Forest, first tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds; second tilt, 1 ring, 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds.
J. N. Steele, Knight of St. Johns, first tilt, 2 rings, 7 seconds; second tilt, 1 ring, 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds.
J. D. Hotchkies, Knight of the Woods, first tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds; second tilt, 1 ring, 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds.
W. M. Steele, Knight of Indian Land, first tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds; second tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds.
J. M. Spratt, Knight of Richard, first tilt, 1 ring, 6 seconds; second tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds.
W. J. Waters, Knight of the Golden Circle, first tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds; second tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds.

R. A. Clark, Knight of Gettysburg, first tilt, 1 ring, 8 seconds; second tilt, 1 ring, 7 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 8 seconds.
J. J. Waters, Knight of the Lone Star, first tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds; second tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 1 ring, 6 seconds.

J. A. Withers, Knight of the Lost Cause, first tilt, 3 rings, 7 seconds; second tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds.
R. T. May, Knight of Kings Mountain, first tilt, 0 rings, 0 time; second tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 0 rings, 6 seconds.

E. B. Bradford, Knight of Yadin Valley, first tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds; second tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 1 ring, 7 seconds.
Henry Massey, Knight of Kershaw, first tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds; second tilt, 1 ring, 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds.

Prado Jones, Knight of France, first tilt, 1 ring, 6 seconds; second tilt, 1 ring, 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds.

C. L. Miller, Knight of Lancaster, first tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds; second tilt, 1 ring, 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds.

E. B. Springs, Knight of the Raven Black Plume, first tilt, 1 ring, 7 seconds; second tilt, 3 rings, 7 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds.

S. A. Carothers, Knight of the Golden Fleece, first tilt, 3 rings, 7 seconds; second tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 1 ring, 6 seconds.

James Sutton, Knight of the Palmette State, first tilt, 1 ring, 5 seconds; second tilt, 0 rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds.

J. W. Harris, Knight of Flat Rock, first tilt, 1 ring, 7 seconds; second tilt, 2 rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds.

J. H. Young, Knight of Four Mile Creek, first tilt, 2 rings, 8 seconds; second tilt, 0 rings, 8 seconds; third tilt, 0 rings, 0 time.

Master James Miller, Knight of the Confederate Flag, first tilt 3 rings 8 seconds; second tilt, 2 rings, 7 seconds; third tilt, 0 rings, 6 seconds.

John Wallace, Knight of the Mohawk, first tilt, 2 rings, 7 seconds; second tilt, 1 ring, 7 seconds; third tilt, 1 ring, 5 seconds.

J. J. Lumpkins, Knight of Catawba, first tilt, 1 ring, 7 seconds; second tilt, 3 rings, 6 seconds; third tilt, 3 rings, 7 seconds.

After three tilts, the honors of the occasion lay between the Knight of "Snowden," the Knight of "the Indian Land" and the Knight of "the Golden Fleece." After the first tilt, however, the last named Knight being less successful than his competitors had to withdraw. And now followed a sharp contest between the two remaining Knights, and not until the 6th round was the Knight of "the Indian Land" declared to be the victor. With great grace did he receive the crown upon the point of his lance from the hands of the Judges, and dismounting, he gallantly lead forward, Miss Gordon, of Rock Hill, and placing the crown upon her fair brow, proclaimed her "Queen of Love and Beauty."

The Knight of "Snowdon" to whom was adjudged the second prize, placed his chaplet upon the head of Miss Grier of Steel Creek, constituting his 1st Maid of honor. Then came forward the Knight of the "Golden Fleece," who crowned Miss Annie Jones, of Rock Hill, 2nd Maid of Honor.

The Knight of the "Golden Circle," to whom was assigned the honor of selecting the third Maid of Honor, placed his chaplet upon the head of one of Charlotte's fairest daughters, Miss Sallie Steele.

A second contest was now held for an elegant saddle, which, after the fourth tilt, was awarded to the Knight of the "Golden Circle." But we must not omit noticing particularly our young Knight, of the "Confederate Flag," who, though unsuccessful as a competitor, for the honors of the day, nevertheless succeeded in gaining the applause of the Judges and his competitors, and was awarded a special prize of a saddle. Thus ended the Tournament, which was the occasion of more than ordinary pleasure, both to the Knights and spectators.

During the day at appropriate intervals, the "Charlotte Cornet Band" added not a little to the pleasure of those assembled. We would here remark in passing, that the young men who compose this band, deserve more of the support and encouragement of our citizens.

The festivities of the occasion were continued until a late hour of the night. In a hall prepared for the closing scene of this drama, were to be heard the dulcet strains of music, to the measured notes of which, were to be seen, fair maidens and gallant Knights, whirling in the "mazy dance," the fair Queen and her attendants, contributing to the inspiration of the hour by their presence.

Youth and beauty graced the occasion, and ever and anon, in this assembly, was to be seen the "Child of the Regiment" "drumming up Beaux," which, from her attractive appearance, we presume she found no difficulty in obtaining as many as she could possibly entertain.

Towards the "wee sma' hours" of the night, the inmates of the hall, were invited to participate in a sumptuous entertainment, prepared under the skillful supervision of Mrs. Col. A. B. Springs, the "lady of mine host" and others.

On the whole, we do not think that there ever was a Tournament of the kind, in which the Knights acquitted themselves with greater éclat, or which afforded more enjoyment to the spectators.

We would like to have been more minute, and given the names of all the Marshalls of the day, but time and space will not permit.

THE BALTIMORE
PARLOR HEATERS,
COOKING STOVES,
COOKING RANGES,
HOT-AIR FURNACES, &c.
S. B. SEXTON'S CELEBRATED
PATENT BALTIMORE PARLOR HEATERS AND GAS BURNERS, for Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best fire-place heaters ever invented and put in operation. They are generally used, often in the place of furnaces, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwellings and offices. Two or three Stoves heat the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and charm of a coal or gas stove. They are more ECONOMICAL, CLEANER, and RADIATING A LARGER AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them in use.
We manufacture our COOKING STOVES, and we guarantee them to be equal to any sold for baking and cooking. We have Stoves to take in long and short order, and we guarantee them to be baking. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Bituminous coal, and will heat a house, and will save a great deal of fuel, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves.
Our Cooking Stoves are Baltimore made, and we guarantee the best and cheapest in the market.
Baking of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as qually and equally as well as in a Brick oven. We will send you S. B. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to burn from 20 to 30 hours with one filling.
Thankful to our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage.
